Art On Display

This month will feature "Textile Explorations" by Regina Marzlin on the art walls of the library, as well as a group show of mixed media paintings focusing on wildlife by artists Monica Sugg, Kazue Leeming, and Susan Whidden titled "Pushing the Palette: Art Gone Wild!" on our portable display units.

Antigonight Art After Dark Festival

Sept. 16 from 6 – 10 pm
Antigonish Culture Alive's most popular public art event is happening again! Art projects are positioned around downtown venues including the public library. For more information, please visit their facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/antigonightfest/>

Nordic Walking Club

Tuesday, September 5th and 19th from 10 – 11 am

Nordic pole walking is an effective and efficient mode of exercise to improve overall fitness for all adults. Join us for some informal jaunts around Antigonish. Instruction is available; all ages and levels are welcome. Poles will be provided, but feel free to bring your own. Please register in advance by calling 902-863-4276.

Armchair Travel: Afghanistan, a Soldier's Perspective

Thursday, September 14th at 7 pm

Our Armchair Travel series launches for a new season with a very unique presentation. Marie-Anne Hardy will be speaking about her experience in Afghanistan, serving as a member of the armed forces.

150 Library Makers presents: Hand Spun – Making 3D Whorl Spinners

Saturday, September 16th from 2 – 3 pm

Local artist Laurinda Matheson will talk about the art of wool spinning and crafts. Participants can also print their own whorl spinner on the 3D printer! For more information, and to register, please call (902) 863-4276. Supplies will be provided. This workshop is a part of the 150 Library Makers project and a province-wide Canada 150 initiative made possible by funding from the Department of Communities Culture and Heritage (CCH)'s 150 Forward Fund, the Community Technology Network of Nova Scotia (also known as CT Net), as well as support from the regional libraries across the province.

Special Programs

All library programs and sessions are free, although some regular library programs require registration. For more information, about programs & services, please call the library, (902) 863-4276 or visit online at www.parl.ns.ca.
