Comic Book Day!

Drop in on Saturday, May 6 (between 10am and 5pm) to do a fun scavenger hunt and to pick up your free comic book or book! All are welcome!

Special Events

- ❖ Super Hero Craft for Free Comic Book Day – Drop in Saturday, May 6 between 10:00am and 1:00pm – Drop in to the library and make your own shield in honour of Comic Book Day and take home a free comic book or book thanks to the Adopt-a-Library Program! All ages are welcome!
- ❖ Art Gala 2017 – Celebrating 150 years of our communities on canvas with Friends by the Sea Artists Association – Saturday, May 6 at 6:00pm – Join us as Friends by the Sea Artists' Association holds their 10th annual Art Show Gala and Library Fundraiser. Snacks and light refreshments will be provided along with live musical entertainment. Proceeds from some of the art sales, and admission fees from the association's event, will be donated to the Pictou-Antigonish Regional Library for collection development. Admission: $5 at the door.
- ❖ "Hell's History" an author reading, with Tom Sandborn – Tuesday, May 9 at 4:30pm – Please join us in remembrance of the 25th anniversary of the Westray Mine explosion, for an author reading with Tom Sandborn. All are welcome, and light refreshments will be served.
- ❖ A StoryWalk for NS Walk Day – Wednesday, May 10 at 10:15am – Join the staff from New Glasgow Recreation and the Library for a StoryWalk featuring The Fire Station by Robert Munsch. The walk will begin from the library's Community Room, we will travel around the library building, through the beautiful Laurie Peace Park and stop by a real fire station as we follow this classic tale. We will end with a craft and light refreshments back in the Community Room. Everyone is welcome, from the young to the young-at-heart! For those who cannot make the group walk the story will be left in place for the day so you can explore it on your own.
- ❖ 'Faith, Hope and Love' - a reading with local author Mary Sheehan – Wednesday, May 17 at 6:30pm – In her second volume of memoirs, Mary Sheehan shares memories of her father, a railroad man and devout Presbyterian whose faith, work ethic, and devotion to those in need shaped her own life of Faith, Hope and Love. Books will be available to purchase on-site.
- ❖ Celebrating 300 years of Community Service: the Masonic Tercentennial – Wednesday, May 24 at 7:00pm – Freemasonry (AF&AM) as we know it today, was founded three hundred years ago on June 24, 1717 and came to Pictou County in 1785. In the presentation, Mr. Meyer will be tracing the origin and principles of the fraternity from its legendary roots, to the present day. All are welcome.
