FOOD PANTRY

We are thrilled to have a community pantry located at the Trenton Library. It is open anytime the library is open, and free to use for anyone who needs it. Donations of non-perishable items in jars or cans are very welcome. They can be dropped off at Trenton Library and Town of Trenton Office. Food is a human right, and is an immediate and tangible way to help someone. Every donation of food can make a difference. Thank you!

WRITING WORKSHOP

Sat 27 April 11am - Found Poetry with Mal Kishii

Are you intimidated by poetry? Learn how to see poetry and express your own point of view in other people's words and text during this exploration of Found Poetry.

This workshop is accessible to beginners, no previous experience necessary. All materials provided. Ages 13+.

Mal Kishii is a queer artist, poet, and writer of speculative fiction who moved to Nova Scotia for love.

WRITERS GET-TOGETHER

Tuesdays 6pm - Writers' Get-together

Drop in and meet other local writers for mutual pep talks, writing exercises, rants, raves, projects, and publishing advice.

April is Poetry Month! Each week we'll have a special challenge around poetry. Write, bring, and share your work:

2 April - Haiku

9 April - Limerick

16 April - Diamante

23 April - Spoken Word

30 April - Sonnet

Special mention: Prepare something for the open mic at the NG Library on Sat 20 April at 2pm!

BETA READER SPOT

Are you a writer? Do you have manuscripts gathering dust in your desk drawer? Try out a test audience via the beta reader spot. For more information, please call the Trenton Library at (902) 752-5181, or you can submit online.
