How finished do you think your book is?

1. First draft, first time I've written anything down. Still rough.
2. Gone over it a few times, but it's still in the early stages.
3. It's shaping up after I've changed a few things, but not yet done.
4. This is at least draft 2, and I think I'm moving in the right direction.
5. At least draft 4, after some major re-writes and changes.
6. I've gone over it many times, I think I'm almost done.
7. This is done, no more changes, ready to publish. I think.

How receptive are you to feedback? Please indicate:

1. I'm pretty sensitive about it. Encouragement only please.
2. Be nice, but ideas for minor improvements are welcome.
3. Please stay polite, but if you spot something major, I'd rather know!
4. I'd rather know than not know if it's any good, but I'm still scared.
5. I need an opinion. Tell me what you think. No, really.
6. Give me the brunt of it, I want to hear it all.
7. Rip it apart. Do not hold back.

At what point do you want to hear back?

After weeks regardless,
or by (date).

After somebody read it.

Not until I come and pick it up.
